MidPenn
LEGAL SERVICES

Advocacy, Justice and Hope

Who We Are

Founded in 1969, MidPenn Legal Services is a nonprofit, public interest law firm with approximately 90 staff, including attorneys, paralegals and support staff. Since our incorporation we have provided free legal advice and representation to nearly one million clients. Using the civil justice system, we improve the lives of our clients and the communities where we live and work through the provision of quality, impactful legal services.

What is Legal Aid?

MidPenn's services are free, directed towards eligible, low-income individuals residing in our service areas. Our attorneys and paralegals provide legal advice and representation in civil (non-criminal) matters.

As member of the communities we serve, we strive to help our clients become independent and self-sufficient members of the community by strengthening families, stabilizing housing, securing and maintaining income, providing access to health care, protecting personal safety and protecting individual rights.

What Are Our Major Areas of Work

The types of legal problems MidPenn can handle may change depending on our resources:

- Family Law – Custody, Visitation, Divorce
- Domestic Violence – Protection from Abuse, Protection from Sexual Violence or Intimidation
- Health – Medicaid, Medicare
- Housing Law – Mortgage Foreclosure, Evictions, Habitability, Public and Subsidized Housing
- Public Benefits – Unemployment Compensation, SNAP, WIC, TANF, SSI
- Consumer Law – Debt Collection, Bankruptcy, Predatory Lending, Utility Terminations
- Elder Law – Power of Attorney, Wills, Guardianship

Major Funders

MidPenn Legal Services is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization which receives funding from many sources, both public and private.

Major sources of funding:

- Legal Services Corporation (LSC)
- Pennsylvania Legal Aid Network (PLAN)
- PA Interest On Lawyer Trust Accounts (IOLTA)
- The Pennsylvania Commission on Crime and Delinquency

What Other Services Do We Offer?

Low Income Taxpayer Clinic: Legal advice and representation to low-income taxpayers in disputes with the Internal Revenue Service.

Legal Intervention for Victims and Empowerment: Legal representation to survivors of domestic and sexual violence in protection orders, family law, housing and expungement.

Medical Legal Partnership: Medical Legal Partnerships combine legal advocacy with health care to address the environmental and social factors that impact a patient's health.

Employment Law Project: Protecting the rights of low-income workers and removing barriers to employment, housing and education opportunities through the expungement of criminal records.

Community Education: MidPenn advocates are available to speak to human services agencies, faith-based organizations, businesses and other community groups on specific areas of law, issues facing the low-income population in the community and the services offered by MidPenn.

Pro Bono Program: Private attorneys volunteer their time and expertise to handle cases for free, often through a local bar association.

Ombudsman: Ombudsmen advocate on behalf of long-term care facility residents for their rights, make referrals with legal issues, mediate problems, and ensure that the residents' quality of life is maintained – all with consumer consent.
